

PIF budget (see attached).

1

Project Name: NFB Festival Support

Brief description: To celebrate the NFB's 60th anniversary, the Golden Horse Film Festival (Taiwan's largest), will organize an NFB retrospective. We hope to have three participants from Canada to attend

Amount requested: 1,500

Partners (proposed or actual): Golden Horse Film Festival, NFB

Partner's contributions: Golden Horse all organization, publicity, logistics
NFB: curate film programme, provide films, select three Canadian participants, pay expenses of one

Overall goals and objectives: Show off Canadian documentary and animated film in Taipei's highest profile film event

Budget summary: Taipei expenses for two Directors to attend festival
Hotel, meals, transportation in Taipei run approximately $150 per day. Expect 5 day stay for two persons.

2

Project Name: Film Policy Seminar

Brief description: Two half-day seminars on the Canadian independent film industry and government film policy. This idea was developed through discussions with the Canadian Film Centre. Wayne Clarkson (former executive director of OFDC, CFC) is an interested candidate. The main seminar would be held in conjunction with either the Golden Horse Film Festival in Taipei in December 1999 or the Taichung Short Film Festival in Taichung in March/April 2000. A second, more informal seminar would be held at a University film school, probably NCU, or at the Taipei Film Archive.

Amount requested: 1,200

Partners (proposed or actual): Golden Horse Festival/Taichung Film Festival
National Central University/Taipei Film Archive

Partner's contributions: Location, Publicity, other participants

Overall goals and objectives: Raise profile of Canadian Film highlight Canadian entries in Golden Horse Festival set Canada as a model for Taiwanese culture

bureaucracy

Budget summary: Hotel, meals, local transportation for 7 day stay.
Materials for distribution to press at seminar.

3

Project Name: Taichung Short Film Festival

Brief description: CTOT will send two young Canadian Directors to Taichung Short Film Festival. The theme of the year 2000 Festival will be "Focus Canada".

000420