

Overall goals and objectives: Cost efficient extension of Festival into new territory territory Budget summary: Domestic transportation, insurance

Project Name: Potlatch

Brief description: Squamish Nation will hold a large traditional feast in Taipei to thank Taiwanese hosts for last two visits to Taiwan and to announce the British Columbia Aboriginal Art Festival (June 2000). Squamish will provide traditional west coast native food and entertainment. Guest list 50-80 persons

Amount requested: 600
Partners (proposed or actual): Squamish Nation, CAA
Partner's contributions: Squamish: Food, entertainment
CAA: Location

Overall goals and objectives: media exposure, focus on tourism
Budget summary: CTOT would live to make a contribution to event as requested by Squamish (eg, local transportation, translator, decoration) in order that we may add some of our contacts to invitation list.

Project Name: AAC 3rd Anniversary

Brief description: CTOT will invite two high profile aboriginal leaders or small performing art group, depending on the focus of this year's festival. (1997's focus was arts, 1998 was social leaders, 1999 is not decided). Anniversary celebrations receive extensive TV and other media coverage and highest level government attention (President or Premier in attendance).

Amount requested: 2,000
Partners (proposed or actual): Council on Aboriginal Affairs
Partner's contributions: All festival costs
Overall goals and objectives: Very high profile ceremonial event.
Opportunity to interact with highest level govt contacts
Budget summary: Hotel, food, local expenses of VIP guests or performers

Project Name: Taoyuan Folk Festival

Brief Description: Folk Festival is a well organized event that draws large crowds and is televised on national cable tv. Token contribution to airfare will give CTOT the right to use the group elsewhere after conclusion of the Festival. This year we were unable to accept invitation from Pingtung City to perform as Taoyuan held exclusive rights to Canadian performers for the duration of their stay.

Amount requested: 3,000
Partners (proposed or actual): Taoyuan Folk Festival
Airline
Partner's contributions: TFF: All organizational and promotional expenses
TFF: all performers room, board, local transportation
Airline: reduced ticket prices

Overall goals and objectives: High publicity event
Budget summary: Contribution to airfare