

CANADIAN STUDIES

Project Name: Aboriginal Higher Education Conference

Brief description: National conference on Aboriginal Higher Education is being held in Hualien in July 1999. Propose sending 3 Canadian participants in areas of Canadian expertise (eg. Aboriginal Law, distance learning, aboriginal college administration) to Conference.

Amount requested: 1,600

Partners (proposed or actual): Tong Hwa University

Partner's contributions: Organization of Conference accomodation, food, transport in Hualien

Overall goals and objectives: build links with Taiwanese universities, establish joint research projects, encourage aboriginal students to study in Canada

Budget summary: One days accomodation and expenses in Taipei for three, transportation to/from Hualien, conference interpreter in Hualien (two days)

Project Name: Fu Ren U Canadian Lit and Film Website

Brief description: Token support for expansion of the Canadian component of Fu Ren/NCU's pioneering internet/videoconference Modern Literatue and culture course

Amount requested: 300

Partners (proposed or actual): Fu Ren University, National Central University

Partner's contributions: All maintenance of website

Overall goals and objectives: maintain Canada's image as leader/innovator in area studies in Taiwan

Budget summary: financial contribution

Project Name: Canadian Studies Conference

Brief description: Large 1 or 1 1/2 day conference with 6-8 topic panels, 20-30 paper presenters and appx 100 participants. This year's conference is moving to a new home, NTNU. NTNU is Taiwan's second most prestigious University. This year's conference will have a focus on educational issues. CTOT would like to earmark some budget contribution to better use of internet and Canadian Studies website for publicizing results of conference. CTOT contribution has been gradually reduced over past two years. Last year we capped cash contribution at NT$100,000

Amount requested: 4,600

Partners (proposed or actual): National Taiwan Normal University Taiwan government (probably Ministry of Education)
Charitable foundation (probably Chiang Ching-kuo)

Partner's contributions: NTNU all locations, logistics, publicity, labour other sponsors: money

Overall goals and objectives: Major annual conference on Canadian Studies is the cornerstone of Canadian Studies programme in Taiwan.

Canada

Conference results in research and publication on