

> c) On media: local media will be contacted in advance of our events, and I > can also make sure the two you mentioned are included. As for Canadian > media, there are no actual stringers I can think of off hand, and I say > this > with some authority because I was myself the only Canadian stringer around > before joining DFAIT last year (Maclean's, CBC). There are some other > avenues, though, which I can explore.

> d) Logistics: Most of the logistics of travel and accommodations are still > being arranged (and yes, you will be put up), and I have already suggested > to the PCT, and a couple of universities, that I will need help on some of > this. I will be relying on the local sponsors of our talk series for most > of > this. In any event, the fact that you can hit the ground running should > make > things easier. Right?

> e) As for specific messages re: your speaking topics, Alvyn and Hamish have > also given me a rough idea of their messages (IMPORTANT NOTE: could you > all > perhaps give me something in writing that puts your themes in a slightly > more formal way so I can produce a sort of draft program?), so we are > already moving nicely along on that front.

> Today is already the eve of the Chinese New year, and the office will be > closed for the rest of the week, meaning that plan-making will not begin > again until next Monday. If any of you have questions or comments in the > meantime, however, you can reach me at:

> jmitch_tw@yahoo.com

> We'll try to arrange tickets early next week, and therefore cement the > dates. Until then, Happy Year of the Snake!

> Regards,

> James A. Mitchell
> Deputy Director
> General Relations and Communications > Canadian Trade Office in Taipei > 011-886-2-2544-3476 (o) > 011-886-2-936-916-921 (cell)

> -----Original Message-----

> From: Michael Stainton [mailto:michaelstainton@hotmail.com] > Sent: January 23, 2001 4:01 AM > To: james.mitchell@dfait-maeci.gc.ca; alvyn@yorku.ca; ion-a@rmc.ca > Cc: peterlin@mail.nsysu.edu.tw; markandrewmcdowell@hotmail.com > Subject: Canadian Mackay Fan Club in Far Formosa

> Dear James Mitchell:

> In response to your query about time and dates and themes:

> I am free the entire time from February 16 through the 26th, York > interterm > exams) but at the price of asking someone to take my tutorials could > extend > past the 26th.

> As it will be Alvyn Austin's first time to Taiwan it will be important to > him to visit the Mackay sites in Tamsui and the archives at Oxford > College.

> I am not sure about Hartish Ion's Taiwan exposure. In Taipei I would like > to 000795