

>
> David,
>
> Thank you for the reply. Yes, I understand and fully concur with your view > that the CTOT Nantao event not have multiple agendas. I was thinking that > aspects such as travel from Canada, and perhaps some other logistical > expenses could be shared between the CTOT and Wind events, where logistical > overlap occurs. But the events themselves should remain independent of one > another.

>
> Please let me know your thoughts on this, as well as the event itself. We > can likely work Paul Gatien in for the technical side of things, as he'll be > in Taiwan and has an excellent working relationship with sound companies > there. I do not think we would need to go with anything much bigger than > last time, just a bit more refined.

>
> Also, you felt there might be a possibility for sponsorship from Eva Air.
> How should we best proceed with that?

>
> Best wishes from snowy Yukon,

>
> Matthew

>
>
> ----- Original Message -----

> From: <david.mulroney@dfait-maeci.gc.ca>
> To: <matthew@matthewlien.com>; <david.mulroney@dfait-maeci.gc.ca>
> Cc: <mark.mcdowell@dfait-maeci.gc.ca>; <dreadman@yknnet.yk.ca>;
> <paul@matthewlien.com>
> Sent: Sunday, February 18, 2001 12:36 AM
> Subject: RE: 921 Event

>
>
>> Matthew:

>>
>> Many thanks for the update. The ideas are interesting, and approaching > them >> now gives us some scope for shaping our return effort. My only comment is >> that we should ensure that whatever is specifically related to a 921 >> retrospective is somewhat apart from the more promotional activities, as > we >> did so well last year. This ensures that everyone, media included, can >> understand its true 'pro bono' intent. Looking forward to talking about > this
>> . . .

>>
>> David

>>
>> First sunshine in 3 weeks!

>>
>> -----Original Message-----
>> From: Matthew Lien [mailto:matthew@matthewlien.com]
>> Sent: February 17, 2001 7:17 AM >> To: CTOT - David Mulroney
>> Cc: CTOT - Mark McDowell; *Danette Readman - WWR; *Paul Gatien - WWR
>> Subject: 921 Event

>>
>>
>> Hello David,

>>
>> Further to our discussions on a 921 activity in Nantao, Wind Records has >> been exploring a series of activities tied to my new CD release which > could,
>> in part, lead to a cooperative effort around that time.

>>

000808