Mark:

We are meeting with Shun Ye to discuss tomorrow, and I have spoken with Trudy. At this point we have to wait to hear from Trudy who is trying (she certainly is on board and willing) to reverse the ROM/Collections' peoples' advice to can the rest of the tour. She will let us know if she needs CTOT or others to weigh in. Rest assured we are not going to throw in the towel.

A press conference would not serve any purpose as this point, and I would like to calm Shun Ye down tomorrow. Melissa's message was unfortunate, but it serves no purpose having Shun Ye think she was speaking for ROM when that is not - according to Nicks - likely to be true.

In other news we've had excellent meetings with Elijah Harper here. I will fill you in once you are in the office.

Eric

I am confident that given a week or two we can straighten this out. I will be back at work on Thursday and will get in touch with CTOT then, then, if they agree, I will contact ROM about this directly.
